OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Taylor Woodford was arrested yesterday for the alleged theft of some tools.

Meridian Street M. E. Sunday-school will hereafter hold its session in the morning.

M. J. Brown, engineer of the Masonic building, has a silver dollar coined in 1798.

Dr. A. J. Hay will be a candidate for School Commissioner in the Tenth District. Henry Mauer's store, 326 Blake street, was robbed of a quantity of goods night before last.

John Carlon, of the Pan-handle shops, was robbed Monday night by foot-pads of a watch.

The Street Car Company refused to clean the Illinois street tunnel unless it is given to it by the city.

Henry Thompson (colored), who is accused of having stolen two books from the Public Library, was arrested last night.

The Health Board is advised of the fact that there are nineteen cases of measles at the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb.

The wife of William Rowland has sent to Midleworth, Graybill & Co. a check for $100 which her husband had sent her.

The Board of Civil Service Examining Commissioners will have to reorganize, P. C. Mosier and R. P. Craft having withdrawn.

Alex. Kamponon, aged fourteen, and employed by the Manufacturers and Carpenters' Union, had his right hand ruined by a buzz saw Tuesday.

The renowned bicyclists, Miss Minnie Rochelle and Mr. Clarence H. Smith, are booked for Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon at Virginia Avenue Rink.

One of the elevator cables at M. O'Connor & Co.'s broke Tuesday and the elevator fell from the fourth floor. One of the employees who was on it at the time was badly shaken up.

The Ancient Order of Druids have elected the following officers: Ernst Knodel, Indianapolis, Grand Noble Arch; George Loran, Evansville, Deputy Grand Arch; Carl J. B. Ratjen, Lawrenceburg, Grand Secretary; William C. Welland, Indianapolis, Grand Treasurer.

Members of George H. Thomas Post G. A. R. who wish to attend the meeting of the Broad Ripple Post, will find wagons for the purpose at the Postoffice corner at 6 o'clock this evening.

It is understood that an effort is being made to secure Mrs. Woodworth for a series of revival meetings at the California Street M. E. Church, after the termination of her present engagement at Kokomo.

Upon the recommendation of the Grain Committee, the Board of Trade will change the names of various grades of corn, so as to coincide more nearly with Chicago grades. The change will go into effect July 1.

The Keystone Quarry Company, of Spencer, Owen County, has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $15,000. James Landers, George W. Kennard and Samuel O. McKenna constitute the Board of Directors.

The Free Kindergarten May party was postponed yesterday on account of the weather, but will be held this afternoon. The committee will meet on the ground at the old Butler homestead this morning at 10 o'clock.

Citizens are requested to make a display of flags, etc., on the 3d and 4th of next month, in honor of the K. of P. Encampment. There will be a grand street parade on the morning and a dress parade in the evening of the 3d, and the drills will be held on the 4th.

During the season at Meridian Rink last winter, when Mr. George Murray was manager, the patrons of that establishment were under greater obligations to him for all comfort, conveniences and rational amusement than to any other, and now that an opportunity presents itself to repay these obligations by a rousing turnout on the occasion of his benefit on Saturday evening, he should be gratefully remembered. An excellent programme has been arranged.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hotel English: N. D. Cox, Spencer; Wm. F. Singleton, Shelbyville; C. S. Dunn, Peru; A. R. Castle, George Lathrop, H. Marble, Crown Point; C. P. Tuiley, Bloomington; John Rogers, Seymour.

Grand Hotel: J. G. Ibach and wife, Huntington; W. C. Lantz, South Bend; Edward S. White, Lafayette; Preston Rider, Crothersville; Mrs. John F. Creed, New Albany; A. J. McIntosh, Salem; John Watson, Brazil; J. G. Pravis, Lafayette.

B. Lyders, Rossville; M. V. Beiger, Mishawaka; John Dolman, Edwin Dolman, Fort Wayne; J. E. Hill, Greensburg.

The Times, of Indianapolis, throws fresh arrows at Rev. O. H. P. Abbott, the new stamp clerk at the city Postoffice, but Mr. Abbott moves right along in the even tenor of his way, doing good work and making hosts of friends. The Times better call off its dogs of war; they can't bite, and their continual barking is offensive. — Marion Democrat.

Bates House: W. S. Knapp, James H. Evans, Columbus; S. S. Hollingworth, Vincennes; H. E. Branch, Martinsville; J. Farren, Peru; Frank E. Wells and wife, Westfield; J. C. Blackledge, Kokomo; John Richardson, Winchester; A. J. Taylor, Sheldon; A. R. Staley, Richmond; C. Steadman, Lawrenceburg; W. T. Murdock, Bluffton; T. Daley, Wabash; Amos A. Stanbust, Clinton; Charles Waterbury, St. Paul; John Salvey, Venice; Wiley B. Craig, Mitchell; Jeff Elder, Danville; Fred Walter, Hadley; J. T. Thompson, Terre Haute; Peter Shaller, Rosamond; Edwin Murry, Bunker Hill.

Federal Court Convictions.

The Federal Court jury yesterday returned a verdict of guilty in the case of the Overman lad, of Greencastle, who forged his employer's name to a money order. George Lathrop, charged with violating the postal laws, entered a plea of guilty. There were sixteen convictions and one acquittal during the term. The prisoners will be sentenced in a few days.

The "Spot Cash."

This brand of cigars, manufactured by A. B. Gates & Co., the well-known jobbers, at 31 and 33 East Maryland street, although introduced to the trade only a few months ago has had a great sale, and has grown into popular favor to a remarkable degree. The reason for this can be found in the excellence of the material that goes to make up a cigar whose flavor and shape manufacture commend it to the consumer. This firm has put several valuable commodities on the market, and anything emanating from A. B. Gates & Co. is a guarantee of its genuineness and superiority.
